

Billionaires CAR CLUB

IT'S GOOD TO BE RICH.

Billionaires Car Club is a new one-hour television series that showcases the most desirable automobiles in the world while providing a unique glimpse into the amazing lifestyles of their wealthy and eccentric owners.

Over the course of the 13 episode season, host Andrew Firestone (The Bachelor) brings a lifetime of automotive experience to bear on some of the most expensive and luxurious vehicles ever conceived. Join him as he delves into the million-dollar toy boxes of the super-rich!

In addition to celebrating automotive classics, a thrilling "test drive" segment invites our viewers behind the wheel of the most amazing and exotic new cars rolling off assembly lines all over the world. See first-hand why these are the classics of tomorrow!

Each episode also provides a segment featuring the passionate and exacting artistry of classic-car restoration expert Bob Smith, internationally renowned for his peerless skill with cars and his colorful personality.
